

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing,
always and everywhere to give thanks to you,
Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.

You formed us in your image and breathed into us the breath of life.

When we turned away, and our love failed,

your love remained steadfast.

You delivered us from captivity,

made covenant to be our sovereign God,

brought us to a land flowing with milk and honey,

and set before us the way of life.

And so,

with your people on earth and all the company of heaven,

we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might.
Heav - en and earth are full,
Bless - ed is he who comes of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the name of the Lord.
high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

The musical score is written on five staves in G major (one flat) and 3/4 time. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (Bb), and a 3/4 time signature. The first staff contains the lyrics 'Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of' with a repeat sign. The second staff continues with 'power and might.' and includes first and second endings. The third staff has the lyrics 'Heav - en and earth are full,'. The fourth staff has 'Bless - ed is he who comes'. The fifth staff has 'of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the'. The sixth staff has 'name of the Lord.' and a fermata over the final note. The seventh staff has 'high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.' with a fermata over the final note.

Holy are you,

and blessed is your Son Jesus Christ.

By the baptism of his suffering, death, and resurrection

you gave birth to your church, and made with us a new covenant, by water and the Spirit.

By your great mercy

we have been born anew to a living hope

through the resurrection of your Son from the dead and to an inheritance

that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading.

Once we were no people,

but now we are your people,

declaring your wonderful deeds in Christ,

who called us out of darkness into his marvelous light.

When the Lord Jesus ascended,
 he promised to be with us always,
 in the power of your Word and Holy Spirit.
 On the night in which he gave himself up for us,
 he took bread, gave thanks, broke the bread,
 gave it to his disciples, and said:
 "Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
 Do this in remembrance of me."
 When the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks, gave it to his disciples, and said,
 "Drink from this, all of you;
 this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many
 for the forgiveness of sins.
 Do this, as often as you drink it,
 in remembrance of me."
 On the day you raised him from the dead
 he was recognized by his disciples in the breaking of the bread, and in the power of your Holy Spirit
 your Church has continued in the breaking of the bread and the sharing of the cup.
 And so,
 in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ,
 we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving
 as a holy and living sacrifice,
 in union with Christ's offering for us,
 as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is ris'n,

Christ will come a - gain. gain.

Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
 and on these gifts of bread and wine.
 Make them be for us the body and blood of Christ,
 that we may be for the world the body of Christ,
 redeemed by His blood.
 By your Spirit make us one with Christ,
 one with each other,
 and one in ministry to all the world,
 until Christ comes in final victory,
 and we feast at his heavenly banquet.
 Through your Son Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit in your holy church,
 all honor and glory are yours, Almighty God,
 now and forever.

A - men, a - men, a - men, a - men.
