

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, creator of heaven and earth.

From before all time to the consummation of time you are the Lord, living and true, source of life and love that rings throughout the universe.

Angels adore you,
seraphim laud you,
martyrs praise you,
creatures and people
of every ability, language and land magnify your name,
and we join their eternal chorus:

Holy are you, Eternal God, and blessed is Christ, the Lamb that was slain, seated at your right hand.

For in him, O God,
you have conquered death,
ravaged hell,
burst the tomb,
broken the chains of evil,
and freed all creation
from its captivity to corruption.

And through him you continue to make all things new.

So renew in us

by the outpouring of your Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that mind which was in Christ Jesus, who, on the night he was betrayed took bread, gave thanks to you, broke the bread gave it to his disciples, and said:

“Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.
Do this in remembrance of me.”

Likewise, when the supper was over, he took the cup, gave thanks to you, gave it to his disciples, and said:
"Drink from this, all of you,
this is my blood of the new covenant, poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.
Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

And so,
in remembrance of these your mighty acts in Jesus Christ, we offer ourselves in praise and thanksgiving as a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for us, as we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died, Christ is ris - en, Christ will come a - gain in glo - ry.
Now he gives to all the faith - - - ful
His own self for heav'n - ly food.

Come, Holy Spirit,
upon us and upon these gifts.
Come, Holy Spirit,
make them Christ's body and blood, and renew us as Christ's body as we receive them.
Turn us and keep turning us until we are one with the fullness of God, one in body, mind, and spirit,
one with each other,
and one in the mission of Christ,
to conquer death,
break every chain,
and renew the whole creation now and at last at the day of his coming.
All glory and honor and worship and praise and thanksgiving be to you, Holy Triune God,
now and forever.

A - men, a - men, a - men, as the light of
