THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father,
who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
thy will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory, forever.
Amen.

RECEIVING THE BREAD AND CUP

We commune by intinction, i.e., by dipping the bread lightly in the cup. After you have communed, you may return directly to your seat or kneel at the rail for prayer and then return.

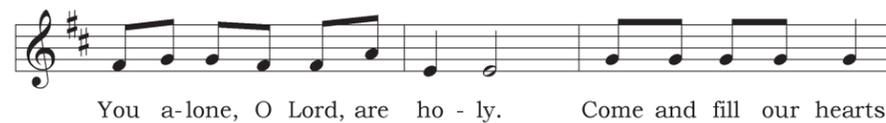

If you would like to be served in your seat, please let an usher know that or ask someone sitting near you to communicate that to the servers.

Gluten-free wafers and cups are available at the left (north) side station. As you approach the servers, please indicate that you would like to receive a wafer.

ENTERING THE HOLY

* CALL TO WORSHIP

The world is a cacophony of noise!
All around you,
sounds of empires under construction and calls for war;
the noise of envy clamoring for more,
the sound of pride keeping its place of prominence.
How can you begin to pray,
much less to hear God speak?
Yet the prophet's horn calls—be silent!
Listen!

Listen, all you busy people!
Listen, all you tired souls!
Listen—the voice of God calls!
The prophet speaks!
Our world is noisy, Lord.
We can hardly hear you!
Silence the voices within and the noises without.
Listen for the one who calls your name.

We are listening Lord.

Do not give up on us.

Call us again.

Now, we are listening.

Now, our hearts are quiet.

Let us worship God with anticipation,
for God is still speaking.

Come down, O Lord of hosts,
and speak to us once again.

* HYMN 211 O Come, O Come, Emmanuel Stanzas 1, 2, 3, and 6

OPENING PRAYER

HEARING GOD'S WORD

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLES

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness –
on them light has shined.

For a child has been born for us, a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Isaiah 9:2, 6

Today we remember the prophets of old,
who demanded to be heard,
who dared to speak of a child to come,
unexpected liberator of the people,
vulnerable incarnation of the Holiest of Holies,
a new name for God.

Today we give thanks for the prophets among us,
who bring to us surprising new visions of hope,
who challenge us to think outside the box,
who show us a future we never anticipated.

On this first Sunday of Advent,
we light this candle as a symbol of the prophets who renew our faith and remind us of what may be.
We light the first Advent Candle.

CHORUS 207 Prepare the Way of the Lord
Cantor sings first, all join the second time.

OFFERING When Emmanuel Shall Come

Don Besig

All the world is waiting for a savior.
All the world is waiting for a king.
Soon we will behold what the prophets have foretold.
Soon we will receive the gift He brings.

All the world is waiting for Messiah.
All the world is waiting for God's Son.
Soon He will appear for the time is drawing near.
Soon we all will greet the Promised One.

There will be joy, joy, joy when Emmanuel has come.
Heaven will rejoice and praise his name.
There will be joy, joy, joy when Emmanuel has come,
and the world will never be the same.

All the world is waiting for an answer.
All the world is waiting for a light.
Soon it will be dawn, and the darkness will be gone.
Soon a King will come to make things right.
