All Are Welcome

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES 10:00-10:45 a.m.

AUSTINITES

Room 109, Family Life Center

A group of members predominantly in their 20s and 30s who enjoy coming together on Sundays for fellowship and faith. Outside of Sunday School, they love getting together for both service and social events. The class is new to FUMC and welcomes new faces. For more information, contact Chloe Potts at chloedpotts@gmail.com.

COME AS YOU ARE

Library, Sanctuary Building

A reconciling group of couples and singles in their 30s, 40s, and 50s who enjoy spirited discussions. We seek to grow together as we discuss topics of spiritual and social importance. Community service, fun, and fellowship are important to our class members as we prioritize giving back to the community and the church through discipleship in church-wide and class projects. Join us in the library, by 10 a.m. on Sundays, to experience a casual and friendly approach to serving the church and each other. For more information, contact Leslie Ivey at texasivey@att.net.

CROSS SECTION

Room 212, Sanctuary Building

Sunday classes begin with sharing of concerns of class members and visitors, followed by spirited discussions leading us to personal spiritual growth and working toward social justice. Discussion leaders are class members who offer varied references including the Bible and current Christian and secular sources. Class life includes service projects and fun social events. Visitors are welcome! For more information, contact Bob Leeper at BLeeper@sbcglobal.net or 512-479-6933.

DOWNTOWNERS

Room 213, Sanctuary Building

Single and married, members of the Downtowners Class enjoy a wide variety of lesson topics and lively discussion, led by class members and guest speakers. The emphasis is generally on social justice issues and spiritual growth, with strong support for FUMC's mission outreach. The class was an early member of the Reconciling Ministries Network.

For more information, contact Robbie Ausley at robausley@gmail.com.

DROP-IN

Parlor, Sanctuary Building

This class welcomes all adults of any age who can drop in on any or all Sundays and also, as the class name implies, anyone who has to arrive late or leave early to attend to other responsibilities. Meeting in the Parlor, located directly behind the choir loft through the door on the right side of the pulpit in the Sanctuary, they discuss whatever Biblical passage the day's sermon is based on, so there is no advance preparation needed.

For more information, contact Jerry Heare at jheare@naiaustin.com.

EKLEKTIKOS

Room 111, Family Life Center

Couples and singles in their mid 40s and up. Study topics include Bible, Christian art and history, current events, personal development, and mission programs. These open and exploratory classes examine challenging topics to deepen understanding and faith. All are welcome and encouraged to join the faith journey.

For more information, contact Jim Bowen at jbowen2@austin.rr.com or 512-918-1072.

EPHIPHANY

Room 104, Family Life Center

Couples and singles in their 50s and up. Spirituality and scholarship combine in lively discussions on a variety of topics, with emphasis on community service. For more information, contact Chip Morris at chipmorris@swbell.net or 512-343-8599.

KOINONIA

Room 210, Sanctuary Building

Koinonia comes from the Greek word for "community." Married and single, gay and straight, all ages are welcome to this lively and diverse group that explores spiritual, social, and theological issues of faith through extended book studies. Service and fellowship events are also part of group life. For more information, contact Caroline Jones at byrdstarr@hotmail or 512-233-4834.

MODERN FAMILIES

Garrison Chapel, Family Life Center

A class of young couples who enjoy fellowship on Sundays as well as outside the doors of FUMC. Each Sunday a variety of lesson topics are led by class members and guest speakers. Class members enjoy growing as Christians through service to others, involvement in the church, class social activities, and helping each other. For more information, contact Jennifer Bevel at Jenc511@hotmail.com.

OPEN DOOR WOMEN'S CLASS Room 110, Family Life Center

A community of women of all ages, married and single. Programs include Bible study, personal and spiritual growth. For more information, contact Carolyn Trigg at ctrigg@austin.rr.com.
