All are invited to join this study of Entering the Passion of Jesus: A Beginner’s Guide to Holy Week by author, professor, and biblical scholar Amy-Jill Levine.

Jesus’ final days were full of risk. Every move he made was filled with anticipation, danger, and the potential for great loss or great reward. The author explores the biblical texts surrounding the Passion story. She shows us how the text raises ethical and spiritual questions for the reader, and how we all face risk in our Christian experience.

Lenten study groups will meet for six weeks, always on the same day of the week and time. Register now at fumcaustin.org/lentstudy. Books may be purchased for $15 in the foyer or from the church office.

MARCH 10 - APRIL 14

BOOK STUDY:

SENSING GOD

12:15-1:45 p.m. SAN Room 212

Lent is naturally a time for preparation and contemplation, but what does it mean to sit in silence and listen to God? What effects can it have on our connection with God, ourselves, and the world? A study of Laurence Freeman’s Sensing God: Learning to Meditate During Lent provides the opportunity for those interested in mindfulness meditation and contemplative prayer to begin or enhance this life-changing practice. Daviss King will lead the sessions, which include discussion of the book and a period of silence to practice contemplative prayer. Register at fumcaustin.org/sensing-god.

Please purchase a copy of the book and bring it with you.
During Holy Week, a labyrinth, an ancient pattern for prayer, meditation, and contemplation, will be available for walking during church office hours, during the Easter Egg Festival, and on Easter Sunday.
