Cooper and Tyler,

as members of the family of First United Methodist Church
and participants in our shared ministry,
we celebrate that recently you united in marriage,
through the sharing of vows and exchange of rings
before a gathered congregation.

We celebrate the love you share for God,
the life you share together,
and the witness that your covenant relationship
will be to all those around you.

Though we grieve that you were unable to wed
in your own Sanctuary,
by the authority of your appointed pastors,
we claim with hope that God’s blessing knows no limits.

We come today with joy
to pray God’s richest blessings on your life together.

Let us pray:
Most gracious God,
we give you thanks for your tender love
in making us a covenant people through our Savior Jesus Christ.

Send your blessing upon Cooper and Tyler,
that they may keep their marriage covenant,
and continue to grow in love and godliness together.

Grant that their love for each other
\[\text{may reflect the love of Christ for us} \]
\[\text{and grow from strength to strength} \]
\[\text{as they faithfully serve you in the world.} \]

Defend them from every enemy.
Lead them into all peace.

Let their love for each other
be a seal upon their hearts,
a mantle about their shoulders,
and a crown upon their heads.

Bless them
\[\text{in their work and in their companionship;} \]
\[\text{in their sleeping and in their waking;} \]
\[\text{in their joys and in their sorrows;} \]
\[\text{in their lives and in their deaths.} \]

Fill them and us with grace and strength to be witnesses of your unending love
for all of your beloved children.

Watch over them in the coming years,
\[\text{and bring them to the feast of eternal life.} \]

All this we ask through Christ our Lord.
Amen.
WHEN STEPHEN,
FULL OF POWER AND GRACE

1. When Stephen, full of power and grace, went forth throughout the land, he bore no shield before his face, no weapon in his hand; but

2. When Stephen preached against the laws and by those laws was tried, he had no friend to plead his cause, no spokesman at his side; but

3. When Stephen, young and doomed to die, fell underneath the stones, he had no curse nor vengeful cry for those who broke his bones; but

4. Let me, O Lord, thy cause defend, a knight without a sword; no shield I ask, no faithful friend, no vengeance, no reward; but only in his heart a flame and on his lips a sword where with he smote and only in his heart a flame and on his eyes a light where with God’s day break and only in my heart a flame and in my soul a prayer that God, in sweet for dream, so that the stones of overcame the foes of the Lord.

to proclaim and rend the veils of night.
give ness’ name, should understand and spare.
earthly shame a jeweled crown may seem.

Words: Jan Struther

© 1931 Oxford University Press

(All rights reserved. Used by permission OneLicense.net #A705700.)

Music: SALVATION - melody from Kentucky Harmony