Create in me a clean heart, O God,
and renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from thy presence, O Lord, and return unto me the joy of thy salvation.
Psalm 51: 10-12

PRAYER OVER THE ASHES

IMPOSITION OF ASHES
Those who desire to be marked with ashes in the form of a cross may come to the communion rail. You may leave an offering of money on the communion rail for the church’s ministry. The following hymns are sung during the imposition of ashes:

402 Lord, I Want to Be a Christian
356 When We Are Living
382 Have Thine Own Way, Lord
354 I Surrender All

PRAYER AFTER THE IMPOSITION OF ASHES
The good in us, O Lord, comes from you.
Out of the ashes of our lives and our world, you are able to form something holy and new.
We give ourselves to you for this Lenten journey.
Give us grace for the commitments we make.
Bear fruit within us, that we may be holy,
and make our lives the seeds of justice in this world.
Amen.

*BENEDICTION
With the ash of repentance,
we have entered Lent.
With contrite hearts,
we await our Lord.
Go forth and make preparations to receive the power of God.

ASH WEDNESDAY
February 26, 2020
12:10 p.m.

Will You Meet Us?
Will you meet us
in the ashes
will you meet us
in the ache
and show your face
within our sorrow
and offer us
your word of grace:
That you are life
within the dying
that you abide within the dust
that you are what survives the burning
that you arise
to make us new.
And in our aching
you are breathing
and in our weeping
you are here
within the hands
that bear your blessing enfolding us
within your love.
TODAY WE BEGIN IN SILENCE.
Asterisks (*) indicate stand as you are able.

CALL TO WORSHIP
Now is the time to return to God, for we are God’s creation.
Now is the time to repent of our sin,
for we live each day with brokenness.
Now is the time to choose our fast, for justice will not come on its own.
Now is the time to depend on God’s grace.
Now we submit to God’s time, God’s work.

HYMN
Sunday’s Palms Are Wednesday’s Ashes

OPENING PRAYER
We turn to you, God of life, on this first day of Lent, as we recall our own mortality, pride,
and complicity with evil,
especially the evil of racism.
With hearts torn open by our actions,
we need your guidance and your healing forgiveness.
Ready us to receive your mercy and grace, and cleanse us of the ash of human failing.
Give us courage to choose the fast that will produce justice for all of your beloved creatures.
Amen.

INVITATION TO LENTEN DISCIPLINES
Dear brothers and sisters in Christ:
the early Christians observed with great devotion
the days of our Lord’s passion and resurrection, and it became the custom of the Church that before the Easter celebration there should be a forty-day season of spiritual preparation.
As we continue this ancient practice, we turn our focus to our need to connect our inward spiritual work with the work of racial justice.
We are reminded that the evidence of a fruitful spiritual life is a life that exudes love, works for justice,
and embodies the humility of Christ.
I invite you, therefore, in the name of the Church, by self-examination, honesty, and repentance for your participation in racism; by prayer and fasting from denial, despair, and defensiveness;
and by reading and meditating on God’s Holy Word, which calls us to a new way of living.
As a mark of our humble, mortal nature, and to begin the hard work of honest repentance, let us confess our sin.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION
O God,
we confess that the sin of racial hatred and prejudice distorts your divine plan for our human lives.
You created us in divine likeness, diverse and beautiful;
in every person,
every race is your image.
But too often we fail to recognize your image in all;
forgive us.
You created us in divine freedom, to be free;
in every decision,
every choice is your possibility of justice.
But too often we fail to choose to advocate for your justice for all;
forgive us.
You created us for divine abundance, to tend and share;
in every garden,
every social structure is your seed of community.
But too often we fail to create that community which includes all and gives to all equal access to your abundant life;
forgive us.
Open our eyes to distinguish good from evil.
Open our hearts to desire good over evil.
Strengthen our wills to choose good over evil, so that we may create among us your beloved community.

SILENT PRAYER

WORDS OF ASSURANCE
Hear the good news:
God’s gift of grace in Jesus Christ forgives us and sets us free to live full human lives in community.
We may go forth confident of the grace to see with new eyes beyond racial prejudice; to imagine with renewed fervor justice and mercy for all,
and to create with a new will a community where all are given access to God’s abundant life.
